1. Identification of the Customer and the Customer's Powers

- 1.1. The Bank shall identify the Customer according to the procedure defined by the Bank and according to the applicable laws of the Republic of Latvia and the European Union. The Customer shall be obliged to submit identification documents required by the Bank.
- 1.2. The Customer shall prepare at the Bank the signatures specimen of the Customer or of his/her representative's signature. The Bank shall be entitled at its sole discretion to require the renewal of the Customer's signature specimen, and the Customer shall be obliged to renew it within the time frame defined by the Bank.
- 1.3. When providing Banking services, the Bank shall compare the signatures of the Customer or his/her representative on the transaction document with the signature specimen of the Customer or his/her representative on the Cards submitted to the Bank. At the Customer's sole discretion, the signature specimen may be submitted together with the Customer's seal specimen. In such a case the Bank shall compare the seal of the Customer on the transaction document with the seal on the Card submitted by the Customer. The Bank shall not be obliged to take into account the colour of the stamp.
- 1.4. The Customer hereby undertakes full responsibility for losses incurred by the Bank in the event the Customer has deliberately deceived the Bank, or due to carelessness of the Customer, as well as due to malicious actions by third persons provided that the Bank has identified the signature and the seal of the Customer or his/her representative according to Paragraphs 1.1 to 1.3 and no gross negligence has been found in its activities.
- 1.5. In order to use Banking Services and the Banking Operations using the remote connection devices, the Customer shall receive Payment Instruments the status and application procedure of which shall be defined in a separate Agreement signed between the Parties.
- 1.6. In case of withdrawals and deposits of money, the Bank shall identify the Customer or his/her representative according to the presented personal identification documents.
- 1.7. The Customer is entitled to issue the power of attorney to a third person to receive the Banking Services. Such power of attorney must be prepared in a written form. The power of attorney submitted to the Bank shall be considered to be valid until the Customer recalls it or until the validity term indicated in the presented power of attorney. The power of attorney must be recalled in a written form informing the Bank thereon.
- 1.8. A Customer who is an individual has the right to grant an authorization of managing a personal account to the third person signing in the presence of the Bank's employee the power of attorney in the form provided by the Bank or by submitting the power of attorney drafted in the form of a notarial act.
- 1.9. Documents issued abroad for the use in the Republic of Latvia have to be legalized according to the established procedure (Apostille or legalization), except for the documents issued in countries with which Latvia has signed the legal assistance agreements.
- 1.10. In the event a power of attorney is issued for a certain term, it shall lose its validity at the moment when the term of the power of attorney has expired, unless the power of attorney had been recalled before its expiry. The Bank shall not be responsible for any losses and other additional expenditure incurred by the Customer in cases when the Power of Attorney has been recalled, but the Bank has not been informed about it in a written form.
- 1.11. When processing documents, the Bank shall verify the compliance of a power of attorney with the form and the necessary scope of authorization stipulated in the laws of the Republic of Latvia in order to ensure that the Customer shall be entitled to receive the chosen Banking Services and Banking Operations. This shall also apply to procures registered in the Commercial Register of the Register of Enterprises of the Republic of Latvia. If, at the moment of signing of a document, the signatory of the document is not authorized to represent a Customer whom he/she claims to represent, the signatory, as an individual, shall assume all the liabilities arising from the signed document and shall be responsible for the fulfilment of these liabilities.

- 1.12. The Customer shall be obliged to immediately notify in a written form about all changes in significant circumstances (facts) pertaining to his/her legal relationships with the Bank, especially regarding changes in the name, surname or company name, place of residence, legal address, seal, signatories (or their signatures), changes in capacity or status (loss of capacity, establishment of custodianship, reorganization, privatization, arrest of property, insolvency, bankruptcy, etc.), as well as about all other changes in the documents submitted to the Bank (Articles of Association, register of shareholders/founders, amount of equity capital, officials, minutes of meetings, decisions of the Register of Enterprises of the Republic of Latvia, the Real benefit recipient, etc.) by submitting the new documents justifying these changes or their copies according to the requirements of the Bank.
- 1.13. The Customer shall compensate all losses incurred by the Bank, if during the receipt or provision of the Banking services the Customer or his/her representative is not a capacitated person or his/her capacity is limited.

2. Types of Communication and the Language Used – Preparation, Receipt and Sending of Documents

- 2.1. For the communication with the Bank the Customer shall choose one of the following three languages: Latvian, Russian or English. Irrespective of the language chosen as the main language of communication, the Customer may prepare and submit all documents to the Bank in one of the aforementioned languages without having to provide a translation. If the Customer submits documents in any other language, they must be translated into Latvian, Russian or English. Upon request of the Bank, translation of these documents must be certified in the consular representative office of the respective country, by a notary, by a sworn translator or using any other procedure stipulated by the laws and regulations. An Apostille or a document confirming the authenticity of documents (legalization) shall be used for confirming the authenticity of Documents. The Bank shall not be obliged to compensate to the Customer any expenses incurred in relation to the translation of the respective documents and/or confirmation of their authenticity.
- 2.2. The Customer shall be responsible for the truthfulness, authenticity and completeness of all data and documents submitted to the Bank, and for their timely submission.
- 2.3. Upon receiving the documents, the Bank shall check their authenticity, completeness and validity, as well as the powers of designated persons. In the case the Bank, when taking the aforementioned actions, needs to make use of respective registers or special data bases, as well as in cases when the Customer submits documents to the Bank failing to provide their translation into one of the languages mentioned in Paragraph 2.1, the Bank shall be entitled to use the services of the aforementioned third persons, including translators, at the Customer's expense.
- 2.4. In case of uncertainty, the Bank shall be entitled to ask the respective person (the applicant) to submit any Application and other type of document which is necessary for the Banking Operations in a written form, unless the respective terms and conditions of the Banking operations or the provisions of the signed Agreement stipulate otherwise.
- 2.5. All documents related to the Banking Services and Banking Operations shall be issued by the Bank to the Customer or sent to the Customer's address indicated in the Agreements signed between the Parties, or shall be sent via the Remote Communication Devices.
- 2.6. If the Customer has submitted an application to receive the Account Statements at the Bank in a paper format according to the Agreement signed between the Parties, the Bank shall store the prepared Account Statements for 3 (three) months from the day of preparing the statements.
- 2.7. All informative notices or documents shall be considered to have been sent to the Customer or received at the Bank starting from the moment when a note on the sending of the respective notice or document is registered in the Bank's record-keeping documents unless the respective terms and conditions of the Banking Services or of the Banking Operations stipulate another procedure.
- 2.8. The Customer shall be obliged to submit to the Bank documents which are clearly legible, correctly and precisely completed in blue or black ink without any corrections and deletions, otherwise the Bank shall be entitled to refuse to accept documents which have not been prepared according to the requirements of the Bank.
- 2.9. All documents on the part of the Bank shall be signed by the designated persons of the Bank according to powers granted by the Bank.

3. Currency of the Banking Operations

- 3.1. The Banking Operations must be carried out in a currency agreed by the Parties in the respective Agreement. After alienation of the subject of collateral or use of rights and distribution of income, the remaining money resources shall be returned by the Bank to the Customer informing him/her about it within 5 (five) Banking Days. In the event the Customer, his/her legal successors or heirs cannot be found, these money resources shall be stored at the Bank.

14.2.5. The Bank shall be entitled to receive and use the yield from the subject of collateral if the Customer fails to fulfil his/her liabilities.

15. Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorism Financing

15.1. In order to prevent Money Laundering and Terrorism Financing the Bank shall be entitled to:

15.1.1. Require from the Customer and the Real Benefit Recipient any information on the Customer and the Real Benefit Recipient, as well as on the personal and economic activities of the Customer and the Real Benefit Recipient;

15.1.2. Find out information identifying the Real Benefit Recipient and, for legal entities, also the members structure of the respective legal entity and the way how the Real Benefit Recipient controls the respective legal entity;

15.1.3. Acquire information on the purpose and the expected nature of the transaction;

15.1.4. Monitor transactions and acquire information and documents on Banking Operations carried out in the Account, copies of the Agreement and other documents on the basis of which the Payment Orders are executed and money is received in the Account at the Bank indicated in the Payment Orders, documents justifying payments of money into and from the Account, as well as other documents and information the Bank considers necessary for the above mentioned purposes;

15.1.5. Analyze the documents submitted by the Customer and to store and regularly update the data and the information.

15.2. In the event the Customer has not submitted the requested information and documents within the term stated by the Bank or the Bank suspects that the submitted documents do not comply with the actual circumstances, or that the transaction is subjected to the sanctions of organisations of the European Union, USA and/or other countries, or that the Money Laundering and Terrorism Financing is carried out, the Bank shall be entitled:

15.2.1. To fully or partially refuse to provide the Banking Service and make the Banking Operation;

15.2.2. To inform the Customer about the refusal to carry out the transaction and about submission of the respective information to the Financial Intelligence Unit;

15.2.3. To terminate business relationships with the Customer and to request the Customer to fulfil his/her obligations before the actual term of their fulfilment.

15.3. According to the provisions of the Criminal Law of the Republic of Latvia, the Customer shall bear criminal liability for the intentional provision of false data regarding the ownership of money resources.

15.4. If there are any circumstances connected with the Customer, which the Bank is obliged to report to the Financial Intelligence Unit in accordance with the requirements of the Law on Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorism Financing, the Bank shall be entitled to abstain from making any transactions, including any Payment Orders of the Customer. The Bank shall be entitled to inform the Customer solely on the refusal and on the fact that the information has been given to the Financial Intelligence Unit.

15.5. According to the regulations and recommendations of the Supervisory Authority, before starting cooperation with the Customer, the Bank shall request the Customer to provide information on the Banking Services and the Banking Operations, which it plans to make with the help of the Bank, their types, amount, as well as other information necessary for commencement and assessment of such cooperation. For this purpose, the Bank has prepared a questionnaire, which must be completed and submitted by the Customer to the Bank before the actual commencement of cooperation.

15.6. The Customer shall be responsible for the truthfulness and authenticity of the information provided in the questionnaire. When assessing and organizing cooperation with the Customer, the Bank shall take into account the information provided in the questionnaire.

15.7. The Customer shall be obliged to immediately renew or supplement information in the questionnaire upon request of the Bank.

15.8. The Bank shall be entitled to refuse to provide the Banking Services and to make transactions if the instructions of the Customer stated in the Application or Payment Order significantly differ from the information indicated in the questionnaire or if the amounts of transfers exceed the limits stated in the questionnaire.

15.9. The Customer shall be obliged to submit the information and documents requested by the Bank proving the truthfulness of the information provided. (Paragraphs 15.1.1-15.1.4)

15.10. In the case business relationships with the Customer are terminated on the basis of the provisions of the Law on the Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorism Financing, the Bank shall, in accordance with the Customer's instructions, unless it contradicts the requirements of the laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia, transfer the Customer's Financial Assets to the Customer's account at another bank or to an account from which these Financial Assets were received.

16. Clearing and Cession. Detention Rights

- 16.1. The Bank shall be entitled to use the balance of any Account of the Customer, as well as any other Customer's claim against the Bank, in order to clear the Customer's liabilities towards the Bank without a separate agreement with the Customer or consent of the Customer. The Customer shall be entitled to submit his/her counterclaim on the clearing of the Bank only in cases if such claims of the Customer are undisputable and admitted as enforceable by the court. In order to clear Customer's claims, only the Bank's claims in the same currency may be used, or in the event the Bank agrees, claims in another currency may be used converting the money at the Customer's expense according to the respective currency exchange rate fixed by the Bank.
